

CRIME, CULTURE & CONFLICT: INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES

A one-day conference

17 March 2008

9.00 am – 4.30 pm

Conference Location: LSBU, Keyworth Centre,
Keyworth Street, London SE1 6NG

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The aim of the conference is to examine and discuss some of the most significant developments in crime and its control as well as the changing concerns with security. Drawing on a range of presentations from leading academic researchers from Europe and America, the conference offers a range of specialist presentations on a number of key themes that touch upon significant social and political concerns in different countries.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

The conference will be of relevance to all those who have an interest in crime and its control and the changing nature of security in contemporary society. It is anticipated that this conference will be of particular interest to academic criminologists, social researchers, policy makers and practitioners.

BENEFITS OF ATTENDING

- An opportunity to hear the presentations and discuss key issues with leading criminologists
- To engage in a critical examination of the current international approaches to crime and issues of security
- To gain a better understanding of a range of issues that are significant within academic criminology and the wider society
